

International Methanol Conference

Methanol and the Energy Transition

November 5-7, 2024 - Singapore

Simon Maddren—MMSA

Simon is Managing Director, Proprietary Studies with Methanol Market Services Asia Pte Ltd, (MMSA) a company providing market and techno-commercial advisory services to the global petrochemical industry, having helped dozens of clients with their techno-commercial needs over the past three years. In this role, Simon leads MMSA's Proprietary Services efforts globally. He is also instrumental in MMSA's ongoing analysis of low carbon methanol markets.

Simon began his career with ICI in the UK spending 11 years in various research and technology, process engineering and commercial roles. In 2001 he joined Methanex and moved to New Zealand taking up a regional marketing role. In 2006, Simon moved to Hong Kong and spent 13 years in various commercial leadership roles; the last 6 of which were leading Methanex's regional business in Asia.

Simon is an experienced business leader, knowledgeable of the geopolitics, cultures and business practices in Asia. He has a strong analytical mindset with considerable experience of developing strategies, business planning and managing risk. He has a proven track record of growing and managing a large business in a highly competitive industry and challenging environment.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science (Honors) – Applied Chemistry, University of Northumbria at Newcastle, UK.

PERSONAL

Simon has two children and is resident in United Kingdom. He's actively involved in the local youth rugby community and is a keen golfer.